The new commonwealth of Australia has the peculiar feature about it that woman suffrage seems inevitable by its provisions. These state explicitly that suffrage laws already in force in each state shall not be restricted. They also demand a uniform suffrage law for the whole commonwealth. South Australia having already conferred suffrage upon women, and no change in the suffrage enactments of each state being possible by the law before uniform suffrage bemes a fact, it follows that woman suffrage must be general.

AN ARMY OF 50,000. War Department Forced to Change Plans For the Philippines.

Washington, March 27.-The present plans of the war department contemplate the maintenance of an army of 50,000 men in the Philippines until order has been completely established, under the proposed new civil government and the garrisons can be safely reduced to a peace footing. There are now about 65,000 troops in the Philippines and China, and the original plan was to maintain an army of 60,000 men in the Philippines and China, and the original plan was to maintain an army of 60,000 men in the Philippines until a stable government has been established, replacing the volunteers, numbering 25,000 with regulars to an extent sufficient to keep all existing garrisons throughout the archipelago, but it has been found to be impracticable to do so under existing conditions within the short time intervening before the first of July next, when the entire volunteer army must be dishanded. The failure of the plan is due to lack of available efficars in this country to organize the new regiments authorized by congress and not so much to the difficulty of replans of the war department contemnew regiments authorized by congress and not so much to the difficulty of re-cruiting the regiments.

Reese, a member of the exec- the association and the present cramped for alleged contempt of an injunctive the bond proposition carry at the coming ed for alleged contempt of an injunctive order and subsequently released on a wit of habeas corpus. The decision which was written by Judge Allen deals elaborately with the righis of courts to punish for the violation of restraining orders.

Reese and others went to Kanssis in 1899 during the progress of a coal strike and delivered speeches in behalf of the strikers. In July, 1898, the Western Coal and Mining company, one of the largest concerns affected by the strike, secured an injunction against all members of the mine workers union and "all others combining, couf-derating, or conspiring with them, who are residents of the state."

After delivering a speech Reese was arrested on the ground that he had violated the injunction and was sentenced to a term of six months in the jail at For: Scott, Kan.

The case was appealed to Judge Thayer, who ordered the discharge of Reese. It was to pass on the merits of Judge Thayer's ruling that the case was refered to a higher court, Judge Adams bo'ls that the restraining order does not necessarily have to apply specifically to any person to inflict punishment for its violation. He says that the mere fact thet the order of a court is deed by the strike as the company contributed to the company contributed to the company contributed to the officials in a few days.

El Reno, O. T., March 28.—Five thousand persons are camped along the borders of Klowa and Comanche reservation lands awalting permission to enter these lands, which are to be thrown open to settlement this summer.

Hundreds, and possibly thousands, of people have arranged to put in crops in Camadian, Blaine and Okiahoma counties this year, expecting to secure homes in the Wichita. Klowa.
